Washington Correspondence.
The fickleness of fortune, the heartesenses of fissh society and the follies of the nouveau riche cannot be better illustrated than by giving a few facts relating to a late celebrated family in Washington. The wife was the handsome dashton. The wife was the handsome dashlng daughter of a well-known politician, now in office at New Orleans. He was a distinguished United States Senator years ago. The husband was a good lawyer, a United States Senator of great ability and a heavy mine operator in his far Western, gold-producing home.
He was in his day a Monte-Cristo. He had more money than he could spend. had more money than he could spend. His family went abroad. He built a grand house, copied from some noble-man's palace somewhere abroad -round man's passes somewhere abored — round rooms, square rooms, oblong rooms, ban-queting rooms, bail rooms, drawing rooms, picture rooms, and everything that was grand. And the wife abroad furnished this grand house. I was told by a very intelligent upholsterer the other day, a trustworthy man who knows his business that the scholing topography. his business that the gobelin tapestry in one window of this house cost 45,000 ons window of this nonse cost 43,000 francs, and that the chair covers of the same material, 2,000 francs each. Think of it! the seats and backs of a dozen or so chairs coating $400 each! The same authority also says that one rug in the house cost $2,000, and that the ourtains in the whole house cost $30,000. To-day, the Sanstan in closurers but the Benator is no longer in Congress, but is practicing his profession like any law-yer in San Francisco and is getting a good living. His house in this city is vacant He cannot sell it, and nobody can afford to hire it. No doubt the moths are having a good time in the gobelin tapestry and the point lace curtains. Wealth that is made in a day is ignorant,

In a temperance speech not long since, at Greenwood, being then in one of his repentant moods, he stated that when he was "fifteen years in hell" he was accustomed to vote the democratic ticket with his head averted, clutching tightly his nose with his lefthand and holding the ticket with his right, and then rush around the first

INDIANA.

The "boom" in Indiana seems to be setting in the direction of the Repub-Kenns. The Indianapolis correspondent

Republicans are becoming much more confident within the last two days, while a corresponding depression appears to evershedow the democratic headquarters. Democratic betting men have retired from the street corners, and the air is no longer vocal with cheerful Bourbon bluff. But the wind which is blowing sold to-day may blow hot to morrow, and the scene of last week may be repeated before the expiration of forty-eight hours. Republicans are deriving much solid satisfac-tion from the withdrawal of Eb Henderson's published announcement that he want's to bet $1,000 to $900 on follows: Landers, and they are attaching great importance to this action.

The meeting of business men called for to night was quite largely attended by a class of men who are seldom seen at political gatherings. The meeting was addressed by Deacon Richard Smith, of Cincinnati; Gov. Kirkwood, of lows, and Judge C. C. Morse. The only noticeable feature of the evening's performance was the statement made by the good deacon, at the conclusion of the reading of Gen. Grant's Warren speech, which was used as a text for Barnum, his discourse, that although he had op- Bayard, posed Grant's nomination for the presidency in 1880 he would not say he would not advocate his nomination for this high office in 1884, and that, too, without regard to who might be electd this fall. This open surrender to the slicat man was received with round after round of cheers, and proved to be the best hit the orator made.

In 1864 a Democratic delegate declared in the National Democratic Convention which pronounced the war a failure, that "a war Democrat and an Abolitionist were links of the same same dog." That was while the Democrats were putting down the rebellion under Major- Blaine.

IF the Indiana soldiers were nearly Cameron, Pa., Jones, Nev., all Democrats, why did the Indiana Cameron, Wis. Matthews, Democratic Legislature refuse to vote Chandler, food, blankets, and medicine for them? And why, oh why, did the Democrats of Indiana elect Thomas A. Hendricks, an Bailey, anti-war Democrat, to the United States Barnum, Senate? - Indianopolis Journal. Why were the Knights of the Gol- Cockrell, den Circle exclusively Democrats? And Coke, why was the great War Governor, Oli- Davis, W.Va., Jones, Fla, ver P. Morton, a Republican?

THREE young men in New York, about to cast their first vote, gave each of them in conversation his reason for deciding to vote for Garfield and Ar-

One, a young broker, said he "was opposed to a change because all values would begin to fluctuate and business would be uncertain."

Another, engaged as a working manhonorable by destroying slavery and was endeavoring to make it more remunera-

The third, just beginning his caree as a journalist, said he "would not cast A GENTLEMAN well known in this his first presidential vote for a party

These are good reasons, pithily stated. There are at least an additional or whether he will ally himself with liberal ideas and a progressive policy.

PATRICK GOFF, of New York City, is in Indianapolis. He was one of the men who swore to a personal acquaintance with thousands of aliens natural ized by the corrupt city courts in 1868. He gave his residence, under oath, as being in thirteen different streets in New York city in a single month, and in every one of these streets he resided at No. 44. The presence of this man in the metropolis of Indiana two weeks before election is certainly a very suspicious oiroumstance.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The following statement, made by Mr. Blaine in his speech in Philadelphia on Saturday night, is the subject of considerable talk in political circles here:

On the 28th of February, 1879, the "I want to call your attention to the bill to provide for the payment of the fact," is aid, Mr. Blaine, "that for the first time in the history of this country political tracts have been printed by the Free Trade Leagues of England, and are being distributed throughout this country is anodreds of thousands of copies. "A well-known business man said yesterday that certain large English manufacturing and shipping houses who have representatives in this city have subscribed a fund of $50,000 fo use by the democrats in the Indiana carepaign, and that this money is being kept for use on election day. This, i s said, explains in a measure where the democrats get so much money." PORTLAND, ORE., October 1.—The President and party left Roseburg on a special train this morning. At Eugene City, Junction City and Albany the people gathered at the stations and gave the President a hearty reception. At Salem the party was received by members of the Legislature and prominent citizens, escorted to the Capitol and presented to the Legislature. After a short delay the train moved on to Portland, the party receiving ovations at Aurora, Oregon City and other points on the road. At the depot in this city the President was met by Mayor Thompson, who welcomed him with a proces tion and marched through the princi apartments were provided. The bells of the city were rung, steam whistles blown, a salute fired, the streets hand-semely decorated and lined with cheering crowds. After retiring to the room for a few moments the President appeared on the balcony of the hotel and briefly thanked the citizens for the honor shown him. Sherman and Ramsey followed with remarks. Mrs. Hayes was presented, bowing her acknowledgments. Amid enthusiastic cheers the party returned to their rooms and the crowd dispersed.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Congressman Bayne, of Pittsburg, is in the city. He says the talk of Hancock carrying Pennsylvania is all bosh; that the Allogheny district will give twelve thousand majority for Garfield—this for the reason that it is a manufacturing disriet, and the business men fear a wholesale revision of the tariff in case of democratic success.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—Senator Conkling addressed an audience estimated at 15,000, at the Highland House tonight. He spoke only three-quarters of an hour, being unable to speak longer in the open air.

BLANGUE, aged 2 years, and Scott, aged Frears, children of Mr. and Mrs. David Alexander, who reside on West North street, came near losing their lives on Thursday of this week. The servant girl in the family had placed a quantity of arsenic on the window sill of her room, for the purpose of killing rats that were becoming too familiar for comfort. Unfortunately during the afternoon of Thursday the children gained access to the room, and not being old enough to realize their danger, began eating the poison. Tun "Boys in Blue" will meet again on They had been thus engaged for some little time before Mrs. Alexander discovered what they were doing. Both children were taken suddenly and violently ill, but by the prompt arrival of the family physician an antidote was hastil y applied, which destroyed the effects of the deadly poison. It was an extremely narrow escape for the little ones, who are now out of danger and resting comfortsbly. Arsenic will be banished from the Alexander residence in the future, and a hungry cat will go for the rate. The Chicago Tribune announces that

The Argenta Bally.

The all-day Republican rally, held at Argenta, in Friends Creek township, on yesterday, was decidedly the best attended and most epthusiastic political meeting that has yet been held in the country. Nearly one thousand people were present, among the number the Cisco Garfield Guards, and the Maroa Brass Band enlivened the occasion with excellent music. During the forenoon E. P. Vail, Esq., made a ringing speech, after which the meeting adjourned for dinner. Hon. J. () Cannon spoke for two hours in the afternoon to a monster audience. Both speeches were enthusiastically applauded. Whole families came from a great distance, and all went home late in the afternoon, feeling that the day had been well spent. The Republicans of Friends Creek and adjoining townships are wide awake, and will be at the polls to a man on Nov. 2d.

One of the most attractive musical features of the meeting was the rendition of several rousing campaign songs by W. "Old Shody (Mr. Batley) is great in his role, and well deserves the applause he receives wherever he goes.

The show is all that any same man could reasonably ask of a pantomime company, and there is certainly a great deal to be said in praise of it. "Tickled, or Humpty Dumpty Newly Hatched," is an improvement on the old regulation pantomime, in that it is a change from that century bedecked play. Sandwiched with the songs of Misses North and Antonio, the Irish specialty work, Little Todd's amazing anatomical contortions, and the Spanish troubadour playing, the new version of this antique piece will be ever welcome Little need be said of Adams as Grimaldi. Col. H. W. Rowell was elected chairman, and Jno. T. Monigomery secretary. The ob ject of the meeting having been stated, the election of officers was next in order, whereupon ieo. S. Durfee, was chosen captain, R. P. Lytle, first lieutenant; Jno. A. flarnes, socand licutenant, and W. W. Foster, orderly Mr. Jno. K. Warren stated that Mr. Orlando

One hundred signatures were obtained to the rester of the company, but the good work should not stop until a regiment of Republican voters are enrolled to do what may be nec esserv throughout the campaign.

Let the members of the Garfield and Arthur club turn out en masse next Monday night let the glow and fire of true Republicanism be ighted in every heart, and such a response to he call of duty by one and all be made that terror will saize upon the hearts of all ene mies of good government, and advocates of a change be relegated to the shadows of ob
